

Avci Mahmut Statue

Avci Mahmut was a National Struggle hero who fought as a militiaman against occupying forces in Kagizman in 1918 and fell as a martyr. Holding an important place in the independence struggle of the Kars region, this hero lives on in folk memory as "Avci Mahmut." His statue was masterfully created by sculptor Volkan Dogan to carry his courage and devotion to his people forward to future generations.

Features of the Statue

Reflecting the spirit of its era through traditional Turkish attire and a characteristic mustache, this work has been shaped with fine craftsmanship. The determination in the facial expression and the strength in the posture convey the hero's fighting spirit. Produced from high-quality materials, the statue is suitable for both indoor and outdoor use and can be custom-produced in different sizes.

Areas of Use

It is an ideal work for municipal squares, cultural centers, schools and historical monument areas. It forms a powerful symbol for institutions wishing to commemorate national struggle martyrs and regional heroes. This monumental work, which keeps collective memory alive, is an impressive choice for conveying patriotic values to younger generations.
