Gazi Osman Pasha Bust

The Gazi Osman Pasha bust is an elegant sculpture that captures the determined and dignified stance of the great commander famous for the Defense of Plevna, giving any space a strong and respected character. Standing out with its stern gaze, full beard, fez and shoulder epaulettes, this piece creates a powerful focal point in offices, libraries, memorial areas and building entrances. From the folds of the military uniform to the medals on the chest, from the braided cords to the lines of the face, every detail is prepared with care. This Gazi Osman Pasha bust reflects the commander's majestic and solemn look with great success.

Gazi Osman Pasha Bust Features

The Gazi Osman Pasha bust is first shaped as a clay model, then a mold is taken and the piece is produced from durable fiberglass. The facial features, beard texture, fez, epaulettes, braided cords and chest medals are modeled one by one. Prepared with about one month of handcraft, this 1 meter tall piece gains a realistic texture and depth thanks to its antique bronze look patina finish, and it can also be made in other colors and patina options on request. Its fiberglass structure makes it light, strong and easy to carry. It can be displayed for many years without losing its form or color under rain, sun and temperature changes. This model can also be produced in different sizes on request. For custom orders, the size, color and details can be changed. Gazi Osman Pasha bust prices vary by size, color and production details.
